Welcome to Humanities Intensive Learning & Teaching Institute!

HILT is delighted to welcome 146 digital humanists to the campus of the University of Pennsylvania. We are representatives from liberal arts institutions, research universities, and cultural heritage organizations. More than half of our attendees are graduate students, early career scholars, staff, or adjuncts. And we represent over a dozen different humanities disciplines and subdisciplines.

HILT responds to the growing demand for new types of digital aptitudes, as well as to our recognition of how important these opportunities are in revealing the daily work and research lives of digital humanists. Each year, we bring together participants from across the United States to spend a week learning, networking, and laughing. For the 2018 institute, HILT will provide both breakfast and lunch for all attendees. We’ll also offer opportunities to meet with local cultural heritage professionals via our Cultural Heritage Experiences. We hope you’ll find these gatherings a time to get to know one another as well as the influential crop of instructors that we’ve gathered.

This year, we are delighted to feature YOU in our Ignite Talks for the third year in a row. IGNITE-style talks allow attendees to present their own research, teaching, and mentorship. If you haven’t already signed up, you should do so. Talk about your work, a question you have, or just something cool in the field you think everyone else should know about. We want this time to be about the future of our field.

We continue the trend of offering the HILT social following our first full day of activities. And, in case you want to see a bit of Philly while you are here, we’ll be continuing the highly popular dine-around events Monday through Wednesday. You can reserve a spot at a dine-around by visiting: https://goo.gl/fyYRPA

We’d like to recognize our hosts for HILT 2018. We are delighted to be hosted at the University of Pennsylvania, with special recognition to the Penn Libraries, the Price Lab for Digital Humanities, and the National Council of Public History. We also especially thank Jim English and Stewart Varner, Price Lab Faculty Director and Managing Director, who initiated our partnership with the University of Pennsylvania. Additionally, we extend our gratitude to the Penn Libraries and its Vice Provost & Director, H. Carton Rogers.

We also thank our conference coordination team at the Price Lab, including Jim English, Stewart Varner, the Faculty and Managing Directors, Margie Guy, the Administrative Coordinator, Mariah Min, the Graduate Planning Assistant, and Sarah Milinski, the Program Manager. Of particular note are the technical staff in the Penn Libraries who aided us in our lab set-up. Special appreciation is extended to Sara Varney, the graphic designer at Wolf Humanities Center, who has put together all of the designs for HILT swag materials.
Please take a moment when you can to thank the staff who are providing breakfast, lunch, and janitorial services during the week. Their contributions matter!

We’d also like to thank each of you for choosing to attend HILT. We hope that each of you will depart with more knowledge, additional friends, and a richer scholarly life than when you arrived.

As always, we welcome you to follow us on twitter @HILT_DH, or via our slack channel: hiltinstitute.slack.com

STATEMENT OF VALUES

The Humanities Intensive Learning + Teaching (HILT) Institute is dedicated to providing a harassment-free experience for everyone regardless of gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnicity, origin, or religion. By attending HILT events, you signal your commitment to contributing to a safe and inclusive experience for all. We do not tolerate harassment of event participants in any form. Sexual or discriminatory language and imagery is not appropriate for any event venue, including talks. Participants in HILT courses or any other HILT event, including social events, violating these rules may be expelled at the discretion of the organizers.

Harassment includes but is not limited to: derogatory verbal comments; sexist, racist, or otherwise discriminatory jokes and language; sexual and/or discriminatory images in public spaces; deliberate intimidation; stalking; following; harassing photography or recording; questioning someone’s right to use the restroom of their choice; sustained disruption of talks or other events; inappropriate physical contact; and unwelcome sexual attention.

Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately. If a participant engages in harassing behavior, the organizers may take any action they deem appropriate, including warning the offender or expulsion from HILT.

Reporting Guidelines
Adapted from the Django Software Foundation Guidelines

If you are being harassed, notice that someone else is being harassed, or have any other concerns, we ask that you contact a member of the HILT staff immediately. HILT staff can be identified by their name badges and can always be reached by email at dhtraining01@gmail.com.

All reports will be kept confidential. In some cases we may determine that a public statement will need to be made. If that’s the case, the identities of all victims and reporters will remain confidential unless those individuals instruct us otherwise.

If you believe anyone is in physical danger, please notify appropriate law enforcement first. If you are unsure what law enforcement agency is appropriate, please include this in your report and we will attempt to notify them.

In your report please include:
- Your contact info (so we can get in touch with you if we need to follow up)
- Names (real, nicknames, or pseudonyms) of any individuals involved. If there were other witnesses besides you, please try to include them as well.
- When and where the incident occurred. Please be as specific as possible.
- Your account of what occurred.
- Any extra context you believe existed for the incident.
- If you believe this incident is ongoing.
- Any other information you believe we should have.

What happens after you file a report?
You will receive an email from the HILT staff acknowledging receipt. We promise to acknowledge receipt within 24 hours (and will aim for much quicker than that).
The HILT organizers will immediately meet to review the incident and determine:
- What happened.
- Whether this event constitutes a code of conduct violation.
- Who the bad actor was.
- Whether this is an ongoing situation, or if there is a threat to anyone's physical safety.

If this is determined to be an ongoing incident or a threat to physical safety, the organizers’ immediate priority will be to protect everyone involved. This means we may delay an "official" response until we believe that the situation has ended and that everyone is physically safe.

Once the organizers have a complete account of the events they will make a decision as to how to respond. Responses may include:
- Nothing (if we determine no violation occurred).
- A private reprimand from the working group to the individual(s) involved.
- A public reprimand.
- A permanent or temporary ban from some or all HILT events
- A request for a public or private apology.
We'll respond within one week to the person who filed the report with either a resolution or an explanation of why the situation is not yet resolved.

Once we’ve determined our final action, we'll contact the original reporter to let them know what action (if any) we'll be taking.

We'll take into account feedback from the reporter on the appropriateness of our response, but we don't guarantee we'll act on it. We value your attendance.
